General:—

(a) that the licence shall permit any member or officer of the committee authorised in this behalf to inspect the licensed premises at all reasonable times and without notice.

(b) that the licensee shall always keep the licence issued by the Secretary or Medical Officer of Health at the licensed premises and shall on demand produce it for the inspection of any member or officer of the Committee authorised under clause (a) of this bye-law.

(c) that the licensee shall make adequate arrangement to the satisfaction of the Secretary or Medical Officer of Health as the case may be for the extinction of any outbreak of fire.

- (d) that the licensee shall at all times keep the licensed premises in a clean and sanitary condition and shall provide them with adequate ventilation, suitable drains, latrines, urinal, and other sanitary conveniences for the use of workmen employed therein.
- (e) that the licensee shall not permit any work to be carried on at the licensed premises which gives rise to undue and offensive noises which disturb the neighbourhood between eight o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning unless he has been specially authorised in this behalf.
- (f) the licensee shall comply within the period fixed by the Committee with any notice of the Committee requiring him to remit or abet any nuisance in or emitting from the licensed premises or to prevent any public danger.

For Flour Mills :—

- (g) that the licensee shall store in a suitable room or rooms which shall be used for no other purpose and shall be rat-proof, all grain or pulse received for milling, and all flour produced by milling so long as it remains on his premises.

For Engine & Electric Motor Houses :—

- (h) that in premises where oil engines are used, kerosene oil, petroleum and other inflammable materials shall be kept in a separate room which shall not be contiguous to the engine room.
- (i) that the licensee shall adopt the best practicable means to the satisfaction of the Committee for rendering innocuous all gases, effluvia or vapours emitted by the engine during the process of working, and shall in every case cause such gases, effluvia or vapours to be discharged into the external air in such a manner and at such a height as to admit of the proper diffusion of these gases without producing any unwholesome or injurious effects in the neighbourhood or shall cause such gases to pass from the exhaust pipe (or other outlet of such gases) through fire in such a manner as to consume effectually such gases so as to deprive the same of all noxious or injurious properties.
- (j) that in premises where smoke arises through the use of coal in the furnace or any other place in the engine house, the licensee shall use such apparatus that will as far as practicable consume the smoke arising from the engine or the furnace.

For Acid Stores :—

- (k) that corrosive acid-hydrochloric, sulphuric, or nitric shall be stored only in a rain-proof shed open on at least one side to the free air. The stocks of acids shall be kept away from the surrounding walls or corrugated iron sides of the shed or room so that it is possible to walk all round the stock of ear-bows, cases or bottles to see if there is any leakage. The shed or room may be of any material so long as it is rain-proof and does not infringe any of the Committee's building bye-laws.

For inflammable material :—

- (l) that in premises licensed for use as yards or depots for trade in hay, straw, wood, and other inflammable material no fire of any sort shall be allowed.

For Non-dangerous petroleum :—

- (o) that no other goods of a combustible nature shall be stored in the premises licensed for storage of non-dangerous petroleum, spirit or naphtha.
- (p) that no cask or other receptacle containing petroleum, spirit or naphtha shall be opened or the oil drawn within the building in which these are stored.
- (q) that within premises licensed for storage of petrol, smoking shall not be permitted nor shall any artificial light or fire in any form be stored therein.
- (r) that all petroleum, spirit or naphtha stored shall be kept in properly sealed tins, drums or casks and if any tin, drum or cask be opened it shall be securely closed again in such a manner that no vapour can be given off.
- (s) that all store houses used for the storage of petroleum, spirit or naphtha shall be non-inflammable material with pucca or iron roofs.
- (t) that the floor of all store houses used for petroleum, spirit or naphtha shall be sunk 2 ft. above floor level so that the petroleum cannot flow out in case of fire.
- (u) that for over 25 tins of petroleum stored not less than 4 oil tins full of clean sand shall be kept stored to be available for extinguishing a fire.

For Spirit or Naphtha :—

- (v) that the floor of a store house for spirit or naphtha shall be sunk to a level of 6 inches below the level of all exits so that liquid cannot flow out in case of fire.

(w) that in the case of store houses for spirit or naphtha sand at the scale prescribed in (u) above shall always be kept available for extinguishing fire.

(x) that for a breach of any of these conditions the licensee may be suspended or revoked by the orders of the licensing officer.

Explanation :—

For purposes of these bye-laws the decision of the Licensing Officer, as to whether the ventilation is adequate or the drain or the rooms are suitable or the means adopted for rendering gases, effluvia or vapours innocuous or adequate shall be final.

(5) In case the grant of a licence is refused the Licensing Officer, shall make an order in writing embodying his reason for refusing the licence. An appeal shall lie against each of such order and shall be disposed of at an Ordinary Meeting. The time spent in obtaining copies of such an order will be excluded from this and the Committee may for sufficient cause hear an appeal at the expiry of this period.

(6) New Licences shall not be granted to stockists of fodder within a radius of one mile from the fodder market (Motia Khan) Licences will, however, continue to be given to commission agents for fodder.

(7) No depot or yard shall be licensed in narrow lanes or such places as are not easily accessible to a Fire Brigade or where a private yard adjacent to the depot does not exist for purposes of loading and unloading of articles.

(8) No refuse of articles for which the storage licence has been granted shall be allowed by the licensee to be scattered about on the payment. The presence of such refuse on the payment shall lead to the presumption that the licensee has failed to comply with the conditions of the licence.

(9) No person shall store the articles mentioned below for purposes of trade in excess of the quantity shown against each except under licence issued under these bye-laws :—

(i) Corrosive acids hydrochloric, sulphuric or nitric.	200 Lbs.
